

---

Contents

---

|                   |                                                                                                                                                                     |     |
|-------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 1         | Introduction: School Effectiveness for Whom?Roger Slee and Gaby Weiner                                                                                   | 1   |
| Part One   | Setting the Debates                                                                                                                                          | 11  |
| Chapter 2         | The Idols of the Market PlaceDavid Hamilton                                                                                                              | 13  |
| Chapter 3         | Cultures of Blame and Redemption — WhenEmpowerment Becomes Control: Practitioners'Views of the Effective Schools MovementJoe Rea and Gaby Weiner | 21  |
| Chapter 4         | The Tyranny of the International Horse RaceMargaret Brown                                                                                                | 33  |
| Part Two   | Theorizing the Debates                                                                                                                                       | 49  |
| Chapter 5         | Models of Effective Schools: Limits and CapabilitiesHugh Lauder, Ian Jamieson and Felicity Wikeley                                                       | 51  |
| Chapter 6         | Educational Studies, Policy Entrepreneurship andSocial TheoryStephen J. Ball                                                                         | 70  |
| Chapter 7         | School Effects in Postmodern ConditionsBob Lingard, Jim Ladwig and Allan Luke                                                                            | 84  |
| Chapter 8         | High Reliability Organizations and Liability Students —The Politics of RecognitionRoger Slee                                                         | 101 |
| Part Three | Experiencing the Impacts of School EffectivenessResearch and the School Improvement Movement                                                            | 115 |
| Chapter 9         | Realizing the Mission: Catholic Approaches to SchoolEffectivenessGerald Grace                                                                        | 117 |
| Chapter 10        | Effective Teachers for Effective SchoolsIan Hextall and Pat Mahony                                                                                       | 128 |

|            |                                                                                                                                                            |     |
|------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| Chapter 11 | A Tale of Two Schools in One City:Foxwood and Cross GreenBob Spooner                                                                        | 144 |
| Chapter 12 | A Tale of One School in One City: Hackney DownsSally Tomlinson                                                                                  | 157 |
| Chapter 13 | The Utility of Qualitative Research for InfluencingPolicy and Practice on School EffectivenessSheila Riddell, Sally Brown and Jill Duffield | 170 |
|            | Notes on Contributors                                                                                                                                      | 187 |
|            | Index                                                                                                                                                      | 191 |